Here, we appreciate the fusion of contemporary traditions and ancestral characteristics. Later, we head to the community of Zinacantán, where we visit its church and a family cooperative to observe how women work the backstrap loom, an ancient art from pre-Columbian times. We admire the beauty of the looms and then have the opportunity to visit the kitchen, where we enjoy a typical regional drink and, if we're lucky, some delicious handmade tortillas. At the end of our experience in the indigenous communities, we return to San Cristóbal de Las Casas and explore this beautiful city on a walking city tour. We also have free time to enjoy its streets full of history and culture. Overnight stay.

The Otulún, Shumuljá, and Tulijá rivers join together to create an aquatic ballet of crystal-clear turquoise waters. Immerse yourself in this natural masterpiece and discover every fascinating corner. Next, we head to the Misol Há waterfalls, a hidden oasis that will leave you breathless. The majestic waterfall blends in perfect harmony with the surrounding jungle. Marvel at the pool that forms, a gift of nature after a 25-meter drop. Finally, we arrive at the historic city of Palenque for a well-deserved rest. Accommodation
