ITINERARY

DAY 1 - ARRIVÉE À CANCUN

Passengers will be met at Cancún International Airport and transferred by private vehicle to your hotel. Once you've checked in, you'll have the rest of the afternoon to rest or enjoy the hotel's facilities and nearby attractions.

DAY 2 - CANCUN – MÉRIDA

Breakfast at the hotel. You'll depart Cancún on a direct private transfer to Mérida, the capital of Yucatán. A guided tour of the historic center will allow you to discover gems such as the Plaza Grande, the majestic Saint Ildefonso Cathedral, the Government Palace, and City Hall. The tour includes a panoramic view of the iconic Paseo de Montejo and free time to admire the imposing Monument to the Fatherland. Overnight at the hotel.

DAY 3 - MÉRIDA - HACIENDA YAXCOPOIL - UXMAL - SANTA ELENA

Breakfast at the hotel. We'll start the day with a visit to Hacienda Yaxcopoil, an iconic site linked to the history of henequen cultivation in Yucatán. Next, we'll explore Uxmal, one of the most important archaeological gems along the Puuc Route, where Mayan architecture astounds with its beauty and perfection. Finally, you'll discover Santa Elena, a charming village where you can admire traditional pottery in an artisan workshop. A day rich in history, culture, and traditions. At the end of the tour, we'll head back to the city of Mérida. Overnight stay.

DAY 4 - MÉRIDA - CENOTES DE SANTA BÁRBARA - IZAMAL - VALLADOLID

Breakfast at the hotel. The adventure continues in Homún, where the Santa Bárbara cenotes feature crystal-clear waters, perfect for swimming and relaxing. After enjoying this natural setting, we'll head to Izamal, the "magical yellow village," famous for its yellow-painted streets and its imposing Franciscan convent. A day combining nature and spirituality. While there, you can enjoy the meals included in the admission price. Transfer back to your hotel. Overnight stay.

DAY 5 - VALLADOLID - LAS COLORADAS - RÍO LAGARTOS

Breakfast at the hotel. Departure from Valladolid toward Las Coloradas.

During the tour, you'll explore the salt flats and admire the distinctive pink color of their waters, and you'll also have time to take photos.

We'll then head to Río Lagartos for a boat ride through the biosphere reserve, where you'll be able to observe the region's typical wildlife, including flamingos, crocodiles, and various bird species.

At the end of the boat ride, you'll have time to grab a bite to eat before heading back to Valladolid.

Note: Since this is a natural ecosystem, the experience depends on the weather; the lagoons are at their most beautiful on sunny days with clear skies. If it's cloudy or raining, the pink hue may appear pale or grayish. The best season, when the weather is sunny, runs from March through August.

DAY 6 - VALLADOLID - CHICHÉN ITZÁ – AÉROPORT DE CANCÚN

Breakfast at the hotel. Departure from Valladolid to the archaeological site of Chichén Itzá.

Upon arrival, you'll take a guided tour lasting approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes, during which you'll learn about the history and the most important structures of this ancient Mayan city. You will then have 30 minutes of free time to explore the site at your leisure and take photos.

At the end of the tour, we will begin the private transfer to the city of Cancún, where passengers will be taken to Cancún International Airport to catch their return flight, or to the location specified in advance.
